WHAT DO THEY DO?

Our client is the leading JavaScript company in the WORLD. In the world? Yes in the world, and they are located in Amsterdam. From their base in Amsterdam they deploy the best front-end developers at top-notch clients such as Albert Heijn, Anwb, Talpa, G-Star, ING do I need to continue? You decide with our client together where you would want to work.

They set the standard of developing which is the highest in the sector. Established since 2017 out of a collaboration between recruitment and front-end developers they know what they are doing. By taking on cool projects the company keeps developers tied for a long period of time. It now employs 85 developers and has a drop-out rate of 3% a year. As you can see developer love to work here due to the high quality of developing combined with the interesting projects.

What do others say about them? Well at conferences they organize such as the JavaScript world conference and Miami conference they are recognized as top notch. They distinguish themselves from other consultancy agencies due to the fact they are established by a front end developer so they know what the employers want and need. Therefore, they also pay very well.

WHAT DO YOU HAVE TO DO?

This is your decision! As said, they work with so many different clients and different project that you can decide by mutual agreement where you would like to work. This is in projects of one to two years. You mainly work here as a front-end developer with react, but there are also possibilities to work with angular, vue.js or plain JavaScript.

Although, it is more than writing code when you work here. You are a problem solver who wants to be busy with the architecture and development of new features and products in the ultimate JavaScript way.

YOU HAVE GOT TO HAVE SOME SKILLS TO WORK HERE

Do you want to join the best JavaScript company? Then this is what it takes to be selected:

A proven history in writing solid and clean code with a minimum of 3 years:

- JavaScript
- React (vue/angular)
- Typescript

Must haves:

- Communication skills
- Eager to learn
- Delivering quality over quantity

Are you able to provide some of your projects in Github?

IF HIRED

Then you will get a very nice package of working conditions:

- Salary up to €85k
- Every year increase of salary
- 25 days holiday
