HAYSTACK PEOPLE

Medior/ Senior Frontend Developer

Established | Vast | 60k

COMPANY PROFILE

When it comes to cryptocurrencies, our client is one of the largest exchanges in the Netherlands and is growing fast and ambitious. In terms of growth, they want to expand into Europe, and in terms of innovation, they want to expand into physical stores. They are the first cryptocurrency company to have a real store where people can buy their $BTC, $ETH, and many more. Our client focuses entirely on usability and simplicity, providing users with a safe, educational, simple, and fun experience.

The team consists of 30 employees, also our client has an open-door policy, which is reflected in daily brainstorming sessions among colleagues, monthly updates from management, and many team-building events. Additionally, there are free lunches every day, and to end the week with a drink with the whole team on Friday!

Sounds interesting right?
