HAYSTACK PEOPLE

Senior Back End Developer

Established | Vast | 65k

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Active since 2001, our client offers digital solutions in the heart of Haarlem. Whether the solution is a mobile, TV or wearable app, a point-of-sales system or a responsive website, or a combination of all: they invent, design and build it. Every day people see or use their work: campaigns, logos, websites, apps and software. Their clients range from large multinationals to smart startups. They also develop complex software products themselves. They are based at 3 locations, all within a few minutes reach from Haarlem Central Station. They currently have around 200 employees.

WHO ARE THEY LOOKING FOR?

They are looking for a developer who can quickly work well on their projects after a short lead time. You are a driven developer who likes to unleash his or her own creativity and innovativeness on a variety of custom projects. At the office, you will be enabled to quickly make your own mark on the projects you work on, but also to contribute to process improvement with fresh ideas. You will be assisted in this by other experienced senior and lead developers.
In addition, you will face challenges with fresh courage and a good mood.

WHAT DO YOU BRING ON THE TABLE?

- Expert knowledge of HTML/CSS
- Expert knowledge of PHP 7/MySQL
- Good knowledge of JavaScript and JavaScript libraries
- PHP frameworks experience: Either Laravel and Symfony will work
- Good knowledge of Git
- You can work well together and have good communication and social skills
- You write code that works well, but is also well documented, clean, understandable and readable
- You understand the importance of automated testing and know your way around PHPUnit
- You are able to work on many different projects and switch quickly

THIS IS WHAT YOU GET IN RETURN

- Competitive salary of up to €5500 gross per month
- A well set-up pension scheme
- Discount at the gym which is 1 minute away from your workplace
- Every day, you will receive a delicious lunch prepared by their own cook
- Cool company outings, including winter sports and great drinks at the end of the month.
